

CORPORATE PROFILE: LEADERS IN SURETY BONDING

Personalized, Responsive Contract and Commercial Surety Solutions

COMPANY HIGHLIGHTS

- Rated A (Excellent) by AM Best, FSC XV
- Licensed in 50 states and the District of Columbia
- Treasury listing of $46,897,000
- Regional expertise and superior client services
- Represented by select surety agents

Hudson Surety is comprised of an experienced group of underwriters with deep industry knowledge that enables us to offer creative, personalized solutions to clients. We work closely with select agents throughout the United States to provide superior service. Hudson Surety has the expertise to work with all types of contractors and the financial strength to grow with our valued principals. Products we offer include:

STANDARD CONTRACT SURETY

Regional knowledge of the construction marketplace has been an important element of our underwriting approach. Our contract underwriters work closely with agency partners to understand our customers' needs in order to develop a surety program that supports their plans. Our client base consists of general and specialty trade contractors.

TRANSACTIONAL COMMERCIAL SURETY

Exceptional customer service and a broad appetite for standard and non-standard risks have driven the success of Hudson's transactional commercial surety business. We offer all types of bonds, including license and permit, customs, public official, cannabis, court and miscellaneous commercial bonds.

SPECIALTY CONTRACT BONDS

We offer an alternative solution utilizing tools, such as collateral and funds control, for contractors that may not fit the standard surety market underwriting criteria. We support the bonding needs of the contractor until they qualify for our standard surety program, and we participate in the SBA Surety Bond Guarantee Program.

ACCOUNT COMMERCIAL SURETY

Our team offers a wide variety of commercial bonds for publicly traded and privately held companies throughout the United States. We work with our surety producers to properly understand your business and bonding needs to build long-term, responsive surety relationships.

Hudson has the expertise to work with all types of contractors and the financial strength to grow with our valued principals.
