

Cannabis Management Liability

Cannabis companies must remain nimble in navigating the risks inherent in the evolving and often inconsistent regulatory and statutory landscape. Rather than utilizing incompatible insurance products to address these new exposures, the HudsonPro AlphaGreen™ Cannabis Comprehensive Coverage Policy is forging the way by fashioning unique, innovative and expansive solutions squarely addressing the management liability risks confronting this growth industry.

Designed for private companies in the Cannabis space, our AlphaGreen Policy effectively addresses the coverage requirements of Cannabis firms with one comprehensive policy responsive to their particular needs.
